MISSIONARIES OF THE WEEK

Julie Anderson
Nosipho (Ellie)

Adventures in Missions (AIM)
Long Term Missions Department
Gainesville, Georgia

Praises:

- We enjoyed having several of our Swazi staff members visit us in Georgia in November for a conference AIM was hosting. It was so wonderful to have friends from our “other home” here!!
- We are thankful that Timbali sales continue to grow. We still aren't back to where we were pre-Covid, but things are hopeful.
- Praising the Lord for Titi Motsa who has run Timbali Crafts in Eswatini since we moved to the US. She is doing a great job and has a heart of compassion for the women.

Prayer Requests:

- For the Ngculwini area of Eswatini that was hit by a powerful hailstorm last week. More than half of our Timbali women and AIM staff live in this area and were affected. The damage was devastating; many houses lost roofs or were destroyed all together, people were injured, livestock was killed, etc.
- That the church in Eswatini would be a light of God's love in their nation. The cost of living has gone up significantly in the last few years, and there is more theft, etc., and many living with food instability.
- For Nosipho (Ellie) as she graduates high school this year and makes decisions about what is next. Pray the Lord would clearly guide her.
