Serving Students, Teachers, and Families Around the World

Praise God For:

- Providing opportunities for our team in many nations.
- My time in Ghana as we start another literacy program.
- The organizations that are asking to partner with us and taking these teachings so much further and into more nations.
- Parents that are seeking a Biblical education for their children and making sacrifices to make that happen.
- My improved health.
- The increasing number of topics for training that we have developed.

Pray For:

- All those traveling to attend training by walking, bus, or even paddle.
- Each school that will open this year and its ability to stand firm on Biblical principles.
- Strength and wisdom as we respond to needs when God directs.
- The adjustments we need to make to add online training and resources to our training curriculum.
- My monthly support. It needs to increase to allow me to get to more locations that are asking for help.
- Cayden as he establishes his life in California. He is focused on serving God in the areas of communication and shepherding young men.
- Kendra as she seeks God’s will for her each day.
